

Residential House-Parent More House School

Full time, residential, permanent position for January 2021.

(an April 2021 start may be considered).

www.morehouseschool.co.uk

A professional experienced in providing educational or residential care to children and young people, or a graduate seeking their first position within a school and/or boarding environment is sought to join our enthusiastic and friendly, residential-staff team. The post offers the following:

- Free residential accommodation – term-time and holidays
- Up to 17 weeks' 'school holiday' each year
- Free meals (3 per day) during term time
- Equivalent of at least one full day off per week and up to two days dependent on weekend shift.
- Working hours usually permit staff to be off-duty between 9am and 4pm each weekday
- Comprehensive staff induction and funded staff training in Residential or Boarding Schools' Association accredited courses.

Our staff are inspiring and creative, transforming the futures of intelligent pupils with literacy and language-related additional challenges, by empowering them.

We are interested to hear from graduates or other suitably qualified applicants who might be considering a career within education, special needs teaching and/or residential provision.

We take expressions of interest from students who might be already qualified as teachers or who might yet to have made a decision along this career pathway.

We welcome open-minded colleagues, creative in working alongside young people, all of whom might have previously experienced challenges within the mainstream setting at Primary or Secondary level. Our pupils respond really well to dynamic, energetic and open-minded staff. In return, the school offers a number of pathways into a career in Education or Social Care.

We are different! We pride ourselves in being highly eclectic in our make-up, incredibly vibrant and always being willing to look for a variety of approaches in working alongside our young people. We offer superb staff induction and continued support in your chosen career path within the school, which will serve you well even if you choose to move onto another school in the future.

The School is open for around 35 weeks a year. The post-holder has responsibility to the Head of Boarding and Headmaster for the care and welfare of a dormitory or corridor within a larger house, and as part of a team of housemasters/mistresses, supporting students' emotional and physical well-being and development. They will be required to participate in the school's extra-curricular activities programme.

This is a non-teaching role, although it may be possible to take on a small amount of teaching, dependent on subject and timetable. Applicants with an ability or experience in leading a range of sports activities would be welcomed, although this isn't essential.

Rent-free, single accommodation is provided on-site and the post-holder is required to sleep in the accommodation provided whilst on duty. The School pays for council tax, utilities and provides meals in term time only. Excellent in-school support and guidance is given, and the school will also pay for any training necessary to satisfy the latest Department for Education requirements. This position offers paid holiday during all of the holiday recesses apart from announced INSET (staff-training) Days and offers flexible 'off-duty' days as the boarding timetable permits. This will not be less than one day each week and no greater than two.

The School:

Nationally celebrated, More House School provides an exceptional, mainstream education for boys with Specific Learning Difficulties. Providing a transformative education repeatedly recognised as 'Outstanding' by Ofsted over more than a decade, we offer a specialised learning environment for 490 day and boarding boys from Year 4 to Year 13. Our pupils are taught to recognise their strengths and develop their self-belief so that they achieve independence and extraordinary results at GCSE, BTEC and A Level, above the national averages.

Delivering a mainstream independent-school experience, both academically and socially, the very broad curriculum affords all pupils the opportunity to discover their strengths, challenging them to fulfil their academic and extra-curricular potential. All boys who attend More House are individually timetabled, with many receiving support through the on-site Learning Development Centre and its qualified therapeutic staff. Judged 'Outstanding' by Ofsted in its last four school inspections, our most recent inspection (March 2019) graded More House School 'Outstanding' overall, and 'Outstanding' in each of the six sub-sections of the report. More House is CReSTeD approved, listed in their Specialist Schools category, and is a member of the Independent Schools Association and the Boarding Schools' Association.

The school is set on a wooded hillside in nearly thirty acres on the Hampshire/Surrey border and within the Surrey Hills Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Attractive modern facilities lie above the playing fields. London Waterloo is one hour away by train from close-by Farnham railway station, and there is easy access to the M25, M3 and A3 major routes. Guildford is twenty minutes' drive away.

In recent years, the school has refurbished and extended its boarding facilities, refurbished its eight Science laboratories, built its School of Engineering and CAD facilities, and opened a new Humanities block and school Chapel. Autumn 2017 witnessed the completion of our brand new library and Media Studies centre, and growth in learning support facilities. 2018 saw the expansion of the site and the conversion of a large domestic building into our new Sixth Form centre, which was opened in January 2019, improving further the facilities for both teaching, and independent study. In September 2019, a new bespoke Sixth Form independent-living-skills facility was opened to further the boarders' independent skills development. In the current academic year we hope to commence work on an ambitious project to improve the school's facilities for sports.

The Boarders:

The boarders thrive on the support provided by an enthusiastic and committed team of residential staff who support one another closely.

There are currently just under 80 boarders, the vast majority of whom board during the school week, with a small number remaining in school at non-exeat weekends. Recent expansion of Main House increased capacity and provided extra social facilities. There is an ongoing commitment to development of the boarding facilities.

The youngest boarders are accommodated in eight-bed dormitories and the older ones in either single or shared study bedrooms. All thrive on the support of our committed staff team to develop themselves and their learning. They are a caring, lively group of children and young people. The ethos of the school is sensitive to their needs and the feeling of shared community is one which we nurture.

About this post:

The School is open for around 35 weeks a year. The post-holder has responsibility to the Head of Boarding and Headmaster for the care and welfare of a dormitory or corridor within a larger house, and as part of a team of housemasters/mistresses, supporting students' emotional and physical well-being and development. They will be required to participate in the school's extra-curricular activities programme. This is a non-teaching role, although it may be possible to take on a small amount of teaching, dependent on subject and timetable.

Specific duties include:

- fostering the community ethos of the boarding environment at More House School;
- supporting the Head of Boarding in ensuring the safety and welfare of pupils at all times;
- supporting and evidencing boarders' educational, social and personal development in accordance with the aims and policies of the School;
- leading recreational activities and working closely with colleagues to provide a breadth of opportunities to engage students;
- being aware of the National Minimum Standards for Residential Special Schools 2015 and the Ofsted Social Care Common Inspection Framework, and their relevance to the boarding provision at the School (training will be provided);
- working closely with other staff and with pupils' parents to develop individualised support for boarders;
- providing written reports on boarders' progress;
- being on-call during the day one day per week to accompany boys to medical appointments;
- administering non-prescription medicine or medication previously dispensed by the School nurse, after appropriate training;
- participating in performance-management meetings.

General duties include:

- maintaining appropriate records;
- liaising with parents, colleagues and other professionals as appropriate;
- performing such supervisory duties as may be necessary to uphold the good order of the School;
- adhering to the School's Health & Safety policies and ethos;
- attending formal School occasions;
- helping to ensure the tidiness, monitoring and safe-storage of all equipment used;
- understanding and adhering to the School's Safeguarding and Child Protection policies, including the Code of Conduct, and ethos.

This job-description is not exhaustive. Apart from the duties summarised above, the Headmaster retains the right to include any other reasonable duties which are part of, and incidental to, this type of work.

The Candidate:

We seek to appoint an enthusiastic and reliable individual for a full-time, permanent contract, who complements the School's ethos. The successful candidate will:

- ideally be a graduate, but a non-graduate with appropriate experience and skills may apply;

- be articulate and have an ability to communicate effectively, both verbally and in written form, with children, parents and professionals;
- enjoy working with children and young people aged 8-18, appreciate their sense of humour and channel their enthusiasm;
- demonstrate enthusiasm for challenge, professional commitment and responsibility;
- be able to demonstrate excellent use of standard English within a professional environment, and possess competent I.T. skills;
- be willing to undergo any training deemed necessary by the School and to obtain appropriate certification required by Ofsted/Department for Education for this position;
- work well and professionally with colleagues as part of a team;
- bring energy and commitment to the fulfilment of their duties.

Applicants with an ability to lead a range of sporting activities in the evenings would be an advantage, but not essential.

Salary:

£19,500 per annum (includes accommodation). Salaries are reviewed annually.
